

ARVID'S WEDDING LETTER TO CLARA HARNACK August 8, 1926

Mildred and I were married yesterday. Mildred passed her Master's degree exam 2 days before. She is now a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts. We celebrated the wedding on her brother's farm. A large part of the Fish family was gathered there.

Arvid's description of Marbeau - blond and very tall and manages his farm, which is around 180 acres, on his own. Mildred's mother is simple and yet very fine. We arrived at the farm at 5p and Mildred and I left again at 9p We were married on the farm by Father Johnston (Methodist Episcopal Church) He made it short and painless.
